JOHN P. CRONAN, United States District Judge:

On July 15, 2022, the Court issued an order directing the parties to “discuss whether they are willing to consent, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), to conducting all further proceedings before the Honorable Sarah Netburn, United States Magistrate Judge.” Dkt. 7 at 2. If both parties consent to proceeding before Judge Netburn, counsel for Defendant was directed to “submit to the Orders & Judgments Clerk at judgments@nysd.uscourts.gov a fully executed Notice, Consent, and Reference of a Civil Action to a Magistrate Judge form” within two weeks of the date of the Order, specifically by July 29, 2022. Id. If either party does not consent to conducting all further proceedings before Judge Netburn, the parties were directed to file a joint letter within two weeks of the date of the Order, advising the Court that the parties do not consent, but without disclosing the identity of the party or parties who do not consent.

The July 29, 2022 deadline has passed, but the docket does not reflect any document filed by the parties in accordance with the Court’s July 15, 2022 Order nor is the Court in receipt of any consent form submitted to the Orders & Judgments Clerk. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that, by August 15, 2022, the parties shall file a joint letter advising the Court as to whether both parties consent to conducting all further proceedings before Judge Netburn.

If both parties consent to proceeding before Judge Netburn, counsel for Defendant must, by August 15, 2022, submit to the Orders & Judgments Clerk at judgments@nysd.uscourts.gov a fully executed Notice, Consent, and Reference of a Civil Action to a Magistrate Judge form, a copy of which is attached to this Order (and also available at <https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/2018-06/AO-3.pdf>). If the Court approves that form, all further proceedings will then be conducted before Judge Netburn rather than before the undersigned. Any appeal would be taken directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, as it would be from this Court if the consent form were not signed and so ordered.

If either party does not consent to conducting all further proceedings before Judge Netburn, the parties must file a joint letter, by August 15, 2022, advising the Court that the parties do not consent, but without disclosing the identity of the party or parties who do not consent.

The parties are free to withhold consent to conducting all further proceedings before Judge Netburn without negative consequences.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 1, 2022

NOTICE, CONSENT, AND REFERENCE OF A CIVIL ACTION TO A MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Notice of a magistrate judge's availability. A United States magistrate judge of this court is available to conduct all proceedings in this civil action (including a jury or nonjury trial) and to order the entry of a final judgment. The judgment may then be appealed directly to the United States court of appeals like any other judgment of this court. A magistrate judge may exercise this authority only if all parties voluntarily consent.

You may consent to have your case referred to a magistrate judge, or you may withhold your consent without adverse substantive consequences. The name of any party withholding consent will not be revealed to any judge who may otherwise be involved with your case.

Consent to a magistrate judge's authority. The following parties consent to have a United States magistrate judge conduct all proceedings in this case including trial, the entry of final judgment, and all post-trial proceedings.
